Audio Tracks used in Simulations Examples and Design Exercises

The music and vocal files used within the Examples files and software within the book were variously written, arranged, performed, recorded and produced by Garrey Rice, Adam Struth, Jamie Struth, Iain Thistlethwaite and also Marshall Craigmyle who collectively, and individually where appropriate, assert and retain all of their copyright, performance and artistic rights. Permission to use and reproduce this music is granted for all purposes associated with MATLAB and Simulink software and the simulation examples and design exercises files that accompany this book. Requests to use the music for any other purpose should be directed to: info@desktopSDR.com. For information on music track names, full credits, and links to the musicians please refer to www.desktopSDR.com/more/audio.
